e-Catalogue

eCatalogue is direct marketing campaign analysis tool that provides access to complete and accurate information about products, services and continue to out pull e-mail messages. An e-Catalogue can provide significant benefits because CD production cost is lower enough for you to treat the catalogue as an animated company sales brochure.

If your business distributes any type of product or service catalogue, then you'll be well aware of the high costs associated with it. As an alternative, we offer an electronic catalogue at lower cost than conventional paper catalogues with numerous additional advantages.

Features

- We deliver custom-tailored services
- We Maintain your site up to date
- Excellent service with expedited turnaround
- Get all periodic updates to your website

Benefits

Due to technology advancement, customers are moving from printing source to electronic world. e-Catalogue provides direct impact on customer mind with its user friendly available interface and options. e-Catalogue will give your customers fast access to all your product information. The Important benefits include:

Industry Trends: Various surveys and observation show that e-Catalogue has become an important marketing tool for prospective customers. e-Catalogue customers grew nearly 24% during the past year, to 4.2% for the third quarter of 2003.

Save on printing and distribution costs: The cost of updating the e-Catalogue is low and changes can be made as often as needed that would be cost prohibitive for print catalogues.

Reach niche markets: With e-Catalogue, it is possible to reach specialized market niches more easily than is possible with printed catalogues.

Satisfy your customers: Our integrated design allows moving easily between product descriptions and indexes more conveniently for your customers.
